

Madeley Academy

Equality of Opportunity and Diversity Policy

Prepared by: Maria Satchwell

Date: October 2016

Review Date: October 2017

Introduction

The policy describes the way in which Madeley Academy will meet the requirements of the Equality Act 2010. This Act replaces all previous equality legislation.

At Madeley Academy we understand the reality of an ethnically, culturally and sexually diverse society. We respect all members of our academy community and value the differences between us. Not only do we believe in establishing a safe, secure and open community in which we protect the individuals in our care but we also strive to develop attitudes and philosophies amongst the members of our community so that they may play their part in promoting equality in the wider communities in which they live, play and work.

PRINCIPLE 1: All learners are of equal value.

We see all learners and potential learners, and their parents and carers, as of equal value:

- whether or not they are disabled
- whatever their age, ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation or non-religious, national origin or national status
- whatever their gender and gender identity
- whatever their sexual identity

PRINCIPLE 2: We recognise and respect difference.

Treating people equally (PRINCIPLE 1) does not necessarily involve treating them all the same. Our policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barrier and disadvantage which people may face, in relation to:

- disability, so that reasonable adjustments are made
- ethnicity, so that different cultural backgrounds and experiences of prejudice are recognised
- gender, so that the different needs and experiences of girls and boys, and women and men, are recognised
- sexual identity

PRINCIPLE 3: We foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging.

We intend that our policies, procedures and activities should promote:

- positive attitudes towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people
- positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status, and an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents.
- mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, and women and men, and an absence of sexual and homophobic harassment

PRINCIPLE 4: We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development

We ensure that policies and procedures should benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development:

- whatever their age
- whether or not they are disabled
- whatever their ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status
- whatever their gender and sexual identity, and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity

PRINCIPLE 5: We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist

In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of our policies, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between:

- disabled and non-disabled people
- people of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds
- girls and boys, women and men

PRINCIPLE 6: We consult and involve widely

People affected by a policy or activity should be consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones. We consult and involve:

- disabled people as well as non-disabled
- people from a range of ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds
- both women and men, and girls and boys
- gay people as well as straight people

PRINCIPLE 7: Society as a whole should benefit

We intend that our policies and activities should benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in public life of:

- disabled people as well as non-disabled
- people of a wide range of ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds
- both women and men, girls and boys
- gay people as well as straight people

PRINCIPLE 8: We base our policies and practices on sound advice

We maintain and publish quantitative and qualitative information which shows our compliance with the public sector equality duty set out in clause 149 of the Equality Act 2010.

- Evidence relating to equalities is integrated into our self-evaluation document.

PRINCIPLE 9: Measurable objectives

We formulate and publish specific and measurable objectives, based on the consultations we have conducted (Principle 6) and the evidence we have collected and published (Principle 8).

- A statement of our equality objectives are integrated into the Academy Improvement Plan.
- We keep our equality objectives under review.

Appendix 1 defines the legal framework informing this policy.

Action plans

We recognise that the actions resulting from a policy statement such as this are what make a difference.

Every year, accordingly, we draw up an action plan within the framework of the overall academy improvement plan and self-evaluation form (SEF), setting out the specific equality objectives we shall pursue. The objectives which we identify take into account national and local priorities and issues, as appropriate.

We review our action plan annually and report annually to Governors on progress towards achieving the equality objectives we have identified.

The curriculum

We keep each curriculum subject or area under review in order to ensure that teaching and learning reflect the principles set out above.

Ethos and organisation

We ensure the guiding principles listed above apply to the full range of our policies and practices, including those that are concerned with:

- students' progress, attainment and achievement
- students' personal development, welfare and well-being
- teaching styles and strategies
- admissions and attendance
- staff recruitment, retention and professional development
- care, guidance and support
- behaviour, discipline and exclusions
- working in partnership with parents, carers and guardians
- working with the wider community

Addressing prejudice and prejudice-related bullying

The academy is opposed to all forms of prejudice which stand in the way of fulfilling the legal duties referred to in paragraphs 1–3:

- prejudices around disability and special educational needs
- prejudices around racism and xenophobia, including those that are directed towards religious groups and communities, for example anti-Semitism and Islamophobia, and those that are directed against travellers, migrants, refugees and people seeking asylum
- prejudices reflecting sexism and homophobia.

Our policy is made known to the staff, students, parents and carers in:

- Assemblies
- Staff handbook
- PT time
- The admissions policy
- Home-School Agreements

Our response to any prejudice-related bullying or racist incident will be swift, proportionate, discreet, influential and effective. The following documents, stored on the T drive, deal with the reporting and recording of such incidents:

- Dealing with a prejudice-related incident (Guidance to staff)
- Alleged prejudice-related incident (initial response)
- Investigating a prejudice-related incident (Guidance to SLT)
- Incident investigation form

All personal data is managed in line with the Academy Data Protection guidance.

Roles and responsibilities

The governing body is responsible for ensuring that the academy complies with legislation, and that this policy and its related procedures and action plan are implemented.

The Headteacher is responsible for implementing the policy; for ensuring that all staff are aware of their responsibilities and are given appropriate training and support; and for taking appropriate action in any cases of unlawful discrimination.

A senior member of staff has day-to-day responsibility for co-ordinating implementation of the policy. In particular, they are responsible for monitoring the implementation of this policy and maintaining systems to deal with and record incidents of prejudice-related bullying. The Academy's procedures are detailed in Appendix 2.

All staff are expected to:

- promote an inclusive and collaborative ethos in their classroom
- deal with any prejudice-related incidents that may occur
- plan and deliver curricula and lessons that reflect the principles listed above
- support students in their class for whom English is an additional language
- keep up-to-date with equalities legislation relevant to their work

Information and resources

We ensure that the content of this policy is known to all staff and governors and, as appropriate, to all students and their parents and carers.

All staff and governors have access to a selection of resources which discuss and explain concepts of equality, diversity and community cohesion in appropriate detail.

Religious observance

We respect the religious beliefs and practice of all staff, students and parents, and comply with reasonable requests relating to religious observance and practice.

Staff development and training

We ensure that all staff, including support and administrative staff, receive appropriate training and opportunities for professional development, both as individuals and as groups or teams. All staff receive training on the Academy's behavioural/safeguarding policy, with additional information provided on:

- the Academy's position on race equality
- what constitutes a racist incident
- what the procedures are for dealing with incidents

- what to do immediately an incident is reported by a child, parent/carer, visitor to the academy or member of staff including office/admin staff and kitchen and lunchtime supervisors
- who they report racist incidents to
- what they need to report
- what follow up actions need to be taken

Breaches of the policy

Breaches of this policy will be dealt with in the same ways that breaches of other Academy policies are dealt with, as determined by the Headteacher and governing body.

Monitoring and evaluation

We collect, study and use quantitative and qualitative data relating to the implementation of this policy, and make adjustments as appropriate.

In particular we collect, analyse and use data in relation to achievement, broken down as appropriate according to disabilities and special educational needs; ethnicity, culture, language, religious affiliation, national origin and national status; and gender.

We report annually to the governing body.

Appendix 2 details the monitoring process.

Appendix 1

Legal framework

- We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations in relation to age (as appropriate), disability, ethnicity, gender (including issues of transgender, and of maternity and pregnancy), region and belief, and sexual identity.
- We welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.
- We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.
- At present (Summer 2010) schools are permitted by law to do any of the following:
 - draw up three separate policy statements, relating to disability, ethnicity and gender respectively
 - draw up a single statement containing three separate sections
 - draw up a single statement containing three recurring themes or threads, as in this policy statement.

As we have opted for the third of these, we have ensured that each of the three threads is explicitly mentioned throughout.
